

Collaborative Semantic Map

- Choose a central theme for students to review.
- Students review their materials for salient themes, details, and connections associated with the central theme.
- Students note their thoughts on Post It Notes and place them around the central theme.
- Teacher checks in to listen to the discussion and observe the notes.

